Designer: Bernard-Albin Gras

Lampe Gras No. 104 Wall Light by DCW éditions

A part of the DCW éditions Lampe Gras collection, the range was first designed 100 years ago by Bernard-Albin Gras who wanted to create a light that was functional and stylish for office and workspaces. Still contemporary today, the light series changed the face of 20th-century design and is brought to the modern user by DCW éditions.

The Lampe Gras 104 wall lamp is a small fixture, perfect for tiny spaces and applications, providing needed illumination and a warm ambience. The wall light comes with a subtle black structure and the choice between 9 shade colours which all bring a unique aesthetic to any setting. The wall lamp can also move side to side due to a pivot on the wall base and the shade can move up and down to direct the light where you need. The Lampe Gras 104 Wall Light is available as a singular pack or a duo pack - providing a set of 2 lights, perfect for your bedside.
