Mater Liuku Drop Pendant Light

The Liuku Drop is a simple Scandinavian design that features a wooden drop-shaped pendant that delicately hangs peacefully from the ceiling. This stunningly minimal pendant will bring a touch of Danish design to your home or commercial space. However, this Finnish wood drop design can be paired with elegantly hand-blown Czech Republic glass.

Choose the ideal combination for your interior, available in a natural wood or satin black finish, the drop pendant can be customised to create the perfect effect in your home. The glistening glass shades are available in a transparent glass or smoked glass. Create a fabulous arrangement or cluster above a table or countertop.
