DCW editions In The Air Suspension

The DCW editions In The Air Suspension boasts a UFO-like silhouette, housing either 3 or 6 light sources that appear to hover in mid-air. Designed by Douglas Mont, who was inspired by the imagery Jodorowsky derived from the cult science fiction novel Dune, In The Air combines retro aesthetic with nostalgic science fiction. The levitating diffusers are crafted from glass and encapsulate numerous light sources, projecting a functional yet comforting illumination.

In The Air is a contemporary luminaire that thanks to its elegant black frame can adapt to a wide range of interiors. This silhouette is a perfect addition to dining tables, over kitchen islands, and suspended above a workspace. This suspension light expertly combines minimalistic design with a striking personality.
