Marset Cala Outdoor Floor Lamp is an IP65 rated floor lamp by Joan Gaspar, made with an Iroko wood structure and a polyethylene shade with a Textilene cover. The design keeps the crossed frame and broad shade used across the Cala collection, but adapts the materials for outdoor use. Its shape is inspired by the form of a painter's easel, giving the lamp a clear structure without making it feel heavy.

The shade surrounds the light and filters it through the Textilene cover, giving a warm, textured output for outdoor seating areas. It works well on a terrace, patio, balcony, garden seating area, or beside an outdoor dining table where a floor lamp can make the space feel more settled in the evening. The Iroko frame gives the lamp a natural finish, while the brown shade sits comfortably with exterior furniture and planting.

Cala Outdoor Floor Lamp is plug-in, with a black cable and switch built into the shade. It is available in an Iroko / Brown finish and requires two E27 LED Standard lamps, ordered separately. Most suited to terraces, patios, balconies, garden seating areas, outdoor dining spaces, hotels, restaurants, and exterior lounge areas where a freestanding outdoor lamp can provide warm, shaded light.
