Orsjo Belysning Streck Table Lamp

The Streck Table Lamp is a lightweight and minimalistic light which was inspired by purposeful design. The stripped back design ensures that this lamp will be welcomed into a variety of interior styles. This light is an elegant addition to any living space, particularly in bedrooms and living rooms. The intricate brass detailing grants it an industrial feel, boasting similarities to traditional work lamps.

The light source is concealed by an adjustable shade, this promises you can personalise the light output and making it possible for you to create either a direct or indirect light in your space. The lamp emits a warm and comfortable light output, ensuring atmospheric and functional lighting.
