Broche LED Suspension Light by DCW éditions

Created by contemporary designer Éric de Dormaël, the Broche pendant light has a sculptural form that is ethereal and airy. Four circles sit suspended in the air, connected by a multi-layered structure made from natural brass. The integrated LED light source sits in each circle, creating beautiful bands of light that are inviting and mesmerising.

The Broche pendant lamp is an interplay of light and shadow, casting reflections onto its surroundings for an intriguing lighting solution. The suspension is available in 2 sizes, medium or large, and is best used either as a main light or even in multiple for much larger spaces.
