Ferm Living Herman Lounge Chair

The Herman Lounge Chair was designed by Herman Studio for Ferm Living. Herman Studio specialises in chairs and appreciates the expertise, craftsmanship, and technique required to create each piece. The sturdy frame is made from steel that has been powder-coated for a durable and luxurious finish. The seat and backrest are made from FSC™-certified ash veneer in a black finish to create a sophisticated and contemporary aesthetic.

The lounge chair features a low, oval seat which is generous in size. The wrap-around backrest is designed to support you while providing optimum comfort for hours of use. The Herman Lounge Chair is well-suited to living spaces or a reading nook to provide a space to relax while adding a stylish touch to any room. In commercial spaces, the Herman Lounge Chair blends seamlessly into modern bars or hotel lobbies.
