Moooi Kaipo TOO Table Lamp

The Kaipo TOO is the successor of the first Kaipo design, created in 2001 by Edward van Vliet. The Kaipo TOO Table Lamp maintains the original's iconic silhouette with distinctive, smooth curves. Unlike its predecessor, which was made from glass and steel, the Kaipo TOO Table Lamp is created solely out of glass, radiating beauty whether switched on or off.

The Kaipo TOO is available in two muted colourways, Sepia and Pewter. These silky tones add a touch of luxury and sophistication that blends seamlessly into classic and contemporary decors alike. When illuminated, the glass diffuser creates a warm and calming glow of light that fills the room. This cosy glow is perfect for creating a comfortable ambience in a bedroom, sitting room, or reading nook.
