Glass Drop Pendant Light by Diesel Living with Lodes

The Glass Drop pendant is a beautiful and mesmerising light that creates a wonderful effect in any room in which it is featured. The diffuser is made from blown glass, which looks solid when switched off and then warms up and becomes translucent when switched on. This magical transformation creates a layered aesthetic that will draw the eye and look enchanting in your interior.

The Glass Drop pendant lamp is available in a white or chrome colour finish and comes with a matt white ceiling canopy upon purchase. You can use alone to light a small room or use in multiple to create a wondrous effect in bigger spaces. Use in homes or professional settings for a warming illumination that also provides a downward directed glow.

This pendant light is available to purchase with different sized ceiling canopies in various colours. You can also create a linear, round, rectangular or radial cluster with the Glass Drop suspension when purchased in multiple with a cluster ceiling canopy from Diesel Living with Lodes.
